

Unmatched value in a commodity world.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MetalX Recycling Facilities Reopen to the Public

FORT WAYNE / WATERLOO, Indiana (April 30, 2020) –MetalX is pleased to announce that it will be reopening its scrap metal recycling facilities to the public in Fort Wayne and Waterloo on Monday, May 4. Retail hours will be 8 am to 4 pm, Monday through Friday, at both locations, and the Fort Wayne location will also be open on Saturday from 8 am to noon.

MetalX is committed to serving the communities in which it operates and is dedicated to the safety of its customers and employees. The company will be monitoring all federal, state and local laws and guidelines regarding the COVID-19 virus. Signs will be posted throughout the facilities to inform customers about additional safety measures that have been put into place to enforce social distancing. The number of customers allowed into the facility at one time will be limited, and customers will be asked to remain in their vehicles unless instructed otherwise. Employees will be sanitizing all high-touch surfaces regularly throughout the day and will be practicing responsible protocols to reduce any risk of exposure.

Questions regarding community recycling or pricing can be directed to Fort Wayne (260) 482-1213 or Waterloo (260) 232-3000.

About MetalX

MetalX is an independent scrap metal recycling business founded in 2012 by Danny and Neal Rifkin, third and fourth generation members of the Rifkin family, whose long history in the industry is well-known. MetalX is a full-service scrap metal recycling company engaged in ferrous and nonferrous scrap processing, consulting and management services, and advanced metal recovery technologies. The company is headquartered in Waterloo, Indiana and currently employs 200 people in four facilities concentrated in northeast Indiana and northwest Ohio. For more information, go to www.metalx.net or call 260.232.3000.

###

For further information contact:
Michelle Brown
(260) 232-3031

295 S Commerce Dr. Waterloo, IN 46793 • main (260) 232-3000 • fax (260) 232-3001